

Training Pastors Globally for God's Glory

May 2013

Dear family and friends,

"If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together." – African proverb.

Thank you for going far with us as we go together in equipping African pastors. For more thoughts, CLICK HERE.

House Hunt. As our time in Richvale winds down, we've been fervently searching for where God would have us land more permanently. At this point we're focusing in the foothills of eastern Sacramento, but we're trusting in the Lord for His will to be done.

Snowstorm in Colorado

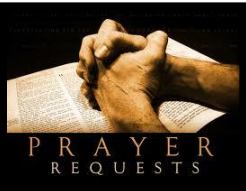

Recent Events. Early in April, I made a trip to Colorado to meet with a large group of pastors and make connections toward developing a group of global equippers. It was also a joy to be with dear friends and a supporting church. Despite a snowstorm that threatened to strand me in Salt Lake City, it was a very beneficial time. Curriculum development and ongoing coaching of African pastors have been keeping me quite busy.

A couple weeks ago, Holly and I celebrated our 15 year anniversary. I am so thankful to the Lord for the patient, sensitive, godly wife the Lord has given me. We are both excited about the future God has for us, wherever that may be and whatever it may be doing, because we will be together.

Upcoming schedule

- May 3-6 – San Diego - Missions conference at Riverview Church and meetings with pastors.
