

Training Pastors Globally for God's Glory

June 2013

Dear family and friends,

Early Tuesday morning (6/11), I leave Holly and the kids in Seattle with her family, and travel again to Dar es Salaam, Tanzania to continue training African pastors. The time will be filled with preaching and ministering in village settings as well as training 15 African pastor-equippers who are gathering to study through the text and theology of Genesis in their third workshop. I'm blessed to have my good friend Steve Reid joining me for this training as the days will be very full, and the extra help will be much appreciated.

Encouraging Testimony – Is the training we do really going anywhere?

The answer is a resounding "YES!!!" Pastor Enock (one of the pastors I'll be training next week) recently wrote me that he has taken the training to six groups of 67 pastors in NW Tanzania, and they have so far passed that training on to 218 other pastors and church leaders. Enock's vision is to give these tools to every pastor in his region. God is moving, pastors are growing, the Word is being preached, and your investment is making an eternally significant difference. Read more on our website: <http://belzglobal.com>

Recent mission work

In the month of May I trained a group of pastors and church leaders in Prescott, AZ, met with several different mission teams in AZ and CA, strategized with pastors and leaders toward global equipping, and assisted in developing training resources and tools for use in equipping pastors.

Upcoming schedule - Please PRAY for the Spirit to guide and empower throughout.

- June 11-25 – Training African pastors in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania; preaching in churches; visiting ministries; encouraging pastors; getting rid of household items in Dar.
- June 26-29 – Quick trip with Holly to Arizona.
- June 30-July 5 – New Orleans, LA - National conference and meetings with Global Training Team.
- July or August – Hopefully move into permanent home and set up our life, furnish home, start kids in new schools, etc.
